KILLED BY KING.

Cold Blooded Butchery of a Quadroon Indian.

THE CRIMSON CRIME OF A CORIN-THIAN SHOOTIST.

Terribly Thrilling Tales From Tragic Texas.

Specials to the Star.

DECATUR, ALA., Dec. 8.-Information is in Spigener's saloon in Rockford, Coosa County, last Saturday, in which a well-known citizen, Mr. R. R. King, stabbed a quadroon Indian named Tyler Franklin, inflicting wounds from which the victim died in about ten minutes.

King and Franklin were both drinking, when Franklin accosted King, demanding that King should, for certain reasons, contribute to the support of a white woman of low repute that was staying at Franklin's house.

For this supposed insult King drew a knife and stabbed Franklin in the back and abdomen, killing him, as stated, almost immediately. King then escaped.

BABE THROWN FROM A CAR WINDOW. HARDENBURG, IND., Dec. 8 .- A little babe was found lying dead in the ditch alongside the O. & M. Railroad near here night before last. The indications are that it was thrown from the window of a night passenger train by some unnatural mother, and is, perhaps, the offspring of illicit love.

MONMOUTH, ILL., Dec. 8 .- Henry Boy le, alias John Cox, who murdered William Ketchum near Swan Creek on Wednesday night, attempted to commit suicide last night by cutting his throat and severing an night by cutting his throat and severing an artery of his left arm. The other prisoners heard bim gasping and alarmed the Seriff who called a physician and soon had the wounds sewed up, after Boyle had shed over a gallon of blood. He will probably recover and is well guarded to prevent another attents. other attempt. He has made a full confession of his erime, also confessing his love for Mrs. Ketchum and left a letter for her full of entimental gush. He wrote to Sheriff ond: "Please give this to my darling Louise Ketchum and my spirit will be at rest. Lord have mercy on my soul. Here goes one true heart. Good-by." Mrs. Ketchum is in jail at Galesburg, being held as an accessory to the murder of her husband. She and Boyle were criminally intimate. She seems uncerned, only regretting that Ketchum was such a bad man that he is probably in hell.

REJOICING OF THE CHILIANS.

National Associated Press to the Star. LONDON, Dec. 8 .- A dispatch to-day from Valparaiso states that the recent Chilian victories were celebrated with great rereceived of a fatal affray which occurred joicings at Santiago, Friday last. The entire population of the city and surrounding country turned out, and a general holiday was proclaimed all throughout the department.

The Chilian Government have taken advantage of the situation to make propositions to the holders of premium bonds, which, if accepted, will lead to the breaking up of monopoly in the guano trade now held by Peru, the revenue from which exceeds it revenue from all other sources combined, and to the transferrence of a propor tion of the traffic into the hands of Chili. TO-DAY IN CONGRESS.

National Associated Press to the Star. Washington, Dec. 8 .- In his player in the House this morning the Chapiain alluded feelingly to the death of Congressman Lay. There was an unusually large number of members present at the opening and all seemed particularly solemn and devotional.

As soon as Thursday's journal had been read in the House Clark, of Missouri, an-nounced Mr. Lay's death, and moved the appointment of a committee to make arrangements for the funeral and to escort the remains to Missouri.

The resolution was adopted, and the Speaker appointed Mr. Clark of Missouri, Mr. Morrison of Illinois, Mr. Hill of Ohio, Mr. Bingham of Pennsylvania, Mr. Chal-mers of Mississippi, Mr. Calkins of Indiana, and Mr. Ryan of Kansas.

The House them as a further mark of respect to the deceased, at 12:10 adjourned BENATE.

The following nominations were sent to the Senate to day: Owen N. Dennis, of Oregon, Consul General at Shangbai; John Hay, of Onio, Assistant Secretary of State; Durham J. H. Crane, of New York, Consul

Mr. Voorhees introduced a resolution declaring that the recommendation to change the financial policy of the country calls for immediate and unqualified condemnation. Mr. Voorhees also presented a resolution that the Senate has heard, with profound astonishment and deep regret, the propo-sition of the President of the United States in his recent annual message, and of the Secretary of the Treasury to innugurate a new and uncalled for financial agitation with a view to the destruction of the most necessary currency now in use in the hands of the people; that the true in-rerests of the country require free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver on condition of an exact equality, and that it is the part of a wise financial policy to maintain the United States legal tender note circulation, commonly known as greenbacks, in volume not less than now exists, and to preserve its legal tender quality unrestricted as to amount and unimpaired in legal effect. Laid on the table.

In respect to the memory of Congressman Lay, Senate at 12:50 p. m. adjourned.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

STANLEY ON THE SENATORSHIP. Special to the Star.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Stanley Matthews left Saturday night for Ohio. He stated that he had no doubt General Grant would be a candidate for nomination before the Republican Convention and believed he would get it. He thought Ohio would present and support Mr. Sherman, but he believed that General Grant would receive the support of New York, Pennsylvania he had noticed some decline in the Grant tide since he arrived at Chicago, but was of the opinion it would rise again and bear him successfully to the Presidency. He believed the South would be for Grant in the Convention, though Mr. Sherman's candidacy might somewhat divide it. As to the Senatorial contest in his State he was of the opinion that the fight would be ultimately narrowed down to a contest between himself and Garfield. Gov. Foster and Senator Sherman proposed neutrality and he believed them sincere in their professions. Both of them were out of the race in any and every contingency.

TOM BRADY'S BOOM. It is said here that Tom Brady, Second Assistant Postmaster General, will be urged for the Governorship of Indiana by the Republicans of that State. Tom is credited with having recently accumulated a large fortune from lucky speculations in telephone enterprises and stocks.

METROPOLITAN MENTION.

FINE CATTLE FROM THE WEST.

National Associated Press to the Star. NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—The exhibition of cattle will be opened in Madison Square Garden to-morrow night. A herd of American Christmas cattle, Durham breed, and over one hundred sheep of different noted breeds are there. The beef of the cattle has been exhibited in New York, but the cattle themselves have never been seen here. The herd was raised near Spring-field, Ill., and was bought for New York consumption. The sheep exhibited are of the South Down breed, raised in Kentucky, the Leicester and Cotswold breeds, raised in Southern Obio, and the Canadian breed.

RECEPTION FOR PARNELL. A call has been signed by twenty men of public note for a meeting to arrange for the reception of Mr. Parnell, the Irish agitator. He was to have sailed on November 25th, but did n.t. and is now to leave Livernool on the 17th. He may, however, be detained by a delay in the trial of Davitt, Killen and Daly, anti-renters, which will begin the 11th, and no action will be taken until news is received of hisstart: A deputa-tion consisting of Judges Charles P. Daly and John R. Brady, Mr. Richard O'Gor-man, John Breslin and other gentlemen of Irisi descent or nationality will meet him in the bay, and a mass meeting and ban-quet will be given, at both of which Mr. Parnell will give his views on the Irish anti-rent question, and on the tenure of land generally throughout Great Britain.

MAX IS BROKEN DOWN. Max Maretezek, the opera manager who disappeared from St. Louis under peculiar circumstances, is safe with his friends in this city. He reached here late Saturday night. He is reported as broken down, and is under the care of a physician. The doctor says, however, there is nothing in his cowlition that rest and freedom from anxiety would not overcome.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Congressman Lay, of Missouri, Dies Suddenly To-day.

Death of the Richest Banker in Baltimore.

National Associated Press to the Star. WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.-Congressman Lay of Missouri, died suddenly at the National Hotel at fifteen minutes to 10 o'clock, this morning. He has been in feeble health for some time. The immediate cause of his death was paralysis, this being his second attack. His wife is here with him. Congressman Lay is the fourth member-elect to the Forty-sixth Congress who has died.

The others were Smith, of New York, who died on the night of his election; Schleicher, of Texas, who died just before the close of the Forty-fifth Congress, and Clark, of Iowa, who died during the extra session. Lay was in feeble health when elected, and came on to attend the extra session at great personal risk, having had previously one stroke of paralysis. The excitement of coming on at this time and the opening of Congress were too much

Washington, D. C., Dec. 8.—A decision in the Cincinnati Post-office matter is likely to be reached this week. Should the President decide to retain Loge Cincinnatians will have some highiy instructive and entertaining reading for their next Sunday's amusement. General Young has prepared his open letter, in which he sets forth to the President and to his constituents his reasons The letter contains a vast amount of documentary evidence, collected from numberless sources to prove the mismanagement of the Post-office and the unfitness and inability of the present Postmaster. The career of John Loge is traced, through all inanner of winding ways and into all manuer of dark places, from the time he kept a clothing store in Lawrenceburg, Ind., down to almost the present hour. Some rather severe criti-

If the letter should be printed, it will be a question who shall sue for libel—whether the President for the very unpleasant things said about his cherished civil service reform or Mr. Loge for the savory and sensational revelations made of his private character. General Young s determined not to be conciliated or turn back, and, if denied Loge's scalp this time, will ontinue on the warpath, if necessary, through his entire Congressional career.

The Utes' Ultimatum. National Associated Press to the Star. WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Secretary Schurz bas received the following dispatch:

"Los Pinos, Dec. 6. "Closed the testimony yesterday, and demanded the surrender of the parties recognized at the massacre. The list includes the head chief, Douglas. The Indians went into council last night, and are still in council. They will answer to-morrow. The present indications are that they will accept the ultimatum for the surrender of the guilty and annihilation of tribal rela-tions. The Indians consider death inci-dental to surrender and trial.

"The struggle among themselves has assumed serious proportions. The influence so far is in favor of a surrender. A trifle, however, may change this at any moment.

TRIAL OF GEORGE PRICE

In the Villie Black Murder Case.

The trial of George Price, the colored man indicted for the murder of the Front street tobacconist, Villie Black, on the 30th of May last, commenced in the Court of Common Pleas, before Judge Longworth,

The only thing done was the calling of a jury. Twenty-five names were called, out of whom two were accepted.

The Court then issued a special summons for one hundred additional names made returnable to-morrow morning.

A Wardrobe Burned.

At the residence of Mrs. Miller, No. 169 West Seventh street, a fire broke out this afternoon about half-past 1 o'clock in a wardrobe in the servant girl's room. cer Petiit, and Sam. Oaks, of the Eights Engine Company, extinguished the fiames, but not before all the clothing it contained and $12 in money, belonging to the girl, was consumed.

Police Court.

Ambrose Pashar, Albert Hall, Edward Lawrence and Louis Clark, four young boys, were arraigned for stealing billiard and pool balls from a saloon on Walnut Hills. They were sent to the House of Refuge for one month.

Julius Latchman, who cut Mr. Eschen-brenner, was committed in default of $1,000 bail, the prosecuting witness being unable

wm. Nuttle was again brought into Court and charged with burglary in con-junction with the charge of assault and battery, for which he was arrested some days ago. Both cases were continued until uesday, Dec. 8th. Henry Momeker and Thomas Manning, two dilapidated looking individuals, were fined $10 and cost for indulging in a glorious drunk. Mary Goodman, a withered looking female, will languish in the Stone Castle for three months, all for enjoying herself with the "spirits." James Finley was given 30 days for disorderly conduct.

Herman Tansk, charged with obstructing the sidewalk with his stand of suspenders and spide jewelry, on Vine streeet, had a fine of $10 placed against him, which is to be assessed should he ever be brought in on the same charge again.

The E. L. Payton Case.

The case of Mullins and Crigler against E. L. Payton was called up in the Common Pleas again to-day. The motion was to set aside the order under which Payton was arrested for the alleged sale of his saloon on Vine street for $4,500, and placing the money beyond the reach of his creditors to defraud them. Judge Smith held that the charge was made out, and refused to set aside the or-der of arrest.

The County Commissioners held special meeting to day, and after passing on some small wills, adjourned to next Wednesday. On Friday the Board goes to Milford to view the foot-path on the North Side. They will also view the bridge at Terrace Park.

Mrs. Bertha Jaeger, who some time ago was so dangerously burned at her home, No. 49 Hamer street, that her life was despaired of, is now so far recovered that she is able to be again on the streets.

A fur cap valued at $18 and $50 in silver was stolen from the store of Francis Rauth & Co., Nos. 78 and 80 East Pearl street, last night.

The Central Club gave their third annual ball Wednesday evening at Turner Hall.

The well-known Wesleyan Chapel it. City Road, London, founded by John Wesley, was nearly burned down Sunday.

Funeral of Captain Cramsey. The funeral of the late Captain Charles

C. Cramsey took place this morning from the Cathedral. According to his request just previous to his death the burial was very private. No band of music secom-panied the cortege, not even a detail of

Lieutenants Burke and Churchill, Serreant Cain, Officers Conway, Richardson, Hadley and Ostendarp, and Secretary of the Health Office, Mr. A. Hoffman, acted as pall-bearers. The remains were interred in the Catholic Cemetery, on the Warsaw Broke His Neck.

Peter Bauer, a chair maker, employed by Scheig, on Sixth and Hoadly streets, white in a drunken condition, between 10 and 11 Mrs. Vrena Gugelmann, aged fifty-nine years, living in Rochester, N. Y., rheumatism in legs; could not walk. Used one bottle of St. Jacobs Oil, and feit, as she asserts, like new born.

Drink Weber's celebrated beer, it is the best; on tap at all first-class saloons.

Try it!
